

Parent Communication Made Easy

Edmodo is your one stop shop for all parent-school communications. It's safe and easy to communicate with parents on Edmodo. When parents are involved, studies have shown that learning outcomes improve for students.

Any parent can sign up in seconds at edmodo.com/parent-signup. Parents in the United States and Canada can sign up with any cell phone by texting their child's class code to 27291.

Teachers:

Edmodo automatically updates parents on class activities, assignments, and grades—all you have to do is invite parents to join!

- Save time. Automatic parent updates means you can focus on teaching.
- Set boundaries. You decide which class activities parents can see.
- Stay organized. All your parent communications are kept in one place.
- Be in touch. Directly message parents in real time.

School Administrators:

Share important news with parents in real time, such as school events, calendars, lunch menus, and schedule changes.

- Broadcast. Send out school announcements to all parents at once.
- Save time. Automatic, real-time parent updates keep classrooms running smoothly.
- Foster community. Your school page gives parents a central school community space.

"It is easier for my parents to stay connected with me and what is going on in the classroom through Edmodo. I put all my daily homework, newsletters, and announcements on Edmodo."

—Sylvia B., 4th grade teacher on Edmodo
